Feel Like A Slave To Your Business?

Yes	No
		I crave more personal time, more freedom
		I routinely say, "I didn't get anything accomplished today"
		I feel like I'm working too much, and making too little
		I feel "out of control"
		I reactively tackle urgent matters instead of important matters
		I am caught working "in" my business instead of "on" my business
		I am juggling too much and feeling overwhelmed and frustrated
		I am chained to my desk, phone, pager, email, etc.
		I am the chief "go-to" problem solver in my business
		I occasionally suffer from the "business owner blues"
		I am stuck "doing every darn thing" myself
		Clutter, complexity, and confusion have overtaken my life

If you answered, "yes," to a majority of these questions, you don't have a successful business, you have a glorified job in which you are trapped. Your goal as a business owner should be to design a company that is distinct from you and works smoothly even in your absence.
